

Interested in Reselling Thermal Corporation Products? This Post Is for You!

Our resellers, along with our other valued customers, are one of the major parts of Thermal Corporation and what help keeps our company going. We, at Thermal Corporation, are always looking to reach out to new resellers for our products. Our goal for this post? To grab your attention— if you are part of an industrial heating sales company who is interested in buying and reselling Thermal Corporation products then this post is for you!

What We Sell

As you may already know (or not), Thermal Corporation designs, manufactures, and sells industrial heating products. The types of industrial heaters we manufacture can be standard, or designed to exact customer specifications. Our products are used mainly for the plastics industry, but they can also be used for other industrial applications such as food processing.

These products include:

- Cartridge Heaters
- Mica Band Heaters
- Ceramic Knuckle Band Heaters
- Strip Heaters
- HotNoz Nozzle Band Heaters
- Thermocouples & RTDs

We also sell Fuji PX Series temperature controllers, contactors, general industrial heating accessories, and thermocouple accessories.

Our delivery time is second to none! Ask about our express line of heaters that ship on the same day with no extra cost! Limitations do apply. We also specialize in custom and unique heaters. We can provide these heaters with short lead times.

How to Become a Reseller

So, are you an industrial heating sales company looking for new product categories to offer or who want more of a variety of brands to sell? Then, contact Thermal Corporation today and chat with us about becoming one of our resellers! Don't forget about the discount you can receive if you decide to resell Thermal Corporation products. Resellers have the opportunity to get the largest available discount from Thermal Corporation. Discounts are based on annual sales of Thermal Corporation products.

Thermal Corporation is looking to reach out to new possible resellers right now! Need more information on our products? Check out the products page on our website at www.thermalcorporation.com/products.

Our new 2019 product catalog is also available in print or online at www.thermalcorporation.com/catalog.
